METHOD: HOW?

My work initially involved raising the profile of reading , beginning with an assembly which was delivered to year 5 and 6 students, staff and parents.
The focus was on my experiences, what the year 5 and 6s should be doing, and what I am bringing in. The concept of 'Reading Champions' was introduced. This involved working with 45 students, 15 per week focusing on exam skills for reading. Each student begins at a 'white belt' for reading and through the weeks, if they meet the necessary requirements they are

FOCUS FOR SUPPORT:

Dallow Primary had able to progress identified an issue in their to the next results for reading. They have level. employed a range of strategies themselves and have also used SLEs to further this push.

BACKGROUND OF SCHOOL:

Dallow Primary School came into Chiltern Learning Trust as an RI school, but was rated 'Good' in its' last Ofsted. (2017) The demographic of its' intake is very multi-racial, with a large proportion being EAL pupils.
