Strategic direction

Wednesday 7 June 2017

9.30am—5.00pm

Challney High School for Boys

In this session the renowned speaker and Ofsted Inspector Bogusia Matusiak-Varley BEd, PG Dip, MA will spend the day with the delegates. She has built a reputation as an international trainer and coach; with her "common sense" approach to organisation and self improvement, coupled with her analytical, evaluative and communicative skills which puts her at the forefront of international consultancy. Bogusia has in depth knowledge of leadership skills and has worked closely with numerous senior teams to turn around underperforming organisations and achieve life balance. Her particular skills lie in helping leaders gain a clear view of their barriers to success and to raise standards in performance.
